

WEDDINGS

You're in Good Hands

Looking for a unique venue?

The Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh is an internationally respected institution, a thriving global network of 25,000 medical professionals, pioneering in the advancement of surgical breakthrough and patient care since 1505. Today, our remit of care has expanded. We now offer cutting-edge hospitality, operating multiple venues in Edinburgh's iconic Old Town, in an area we call Surgeons Quarter

Surgeons Quarter – Cutting Edge Hospitality

Situated on Nicolson Street, we are a central destination tucked away from the hustle and bustle of the city. Our venues are within walking distance of one another and offer a mixture of light, bright spaces and historic wood-panelled elegance.

There's one more excellent reason for choosing Surgeons Quarter; our profits are gift-aided back to the College to support their world-wide education programme. By visiting us, you will help to fund surgical research and training around the world.

CONTACTS

OUR VENUES

Whether you're planning an intimate celebration or a large occasion, Surgeons Quarter can cater for your every need. Choose between antique oak-panelled ambience or bright, contemporary sophistication in spaces that cater from 10 to 230 guests in comfort. You can even opt for both, making use of our beautiful campus over the whole day! Your guests will enjoy the change of scenery and there are plenty of photo opportunities for you on a day you'll never forget.

Surgeons Quarter holds a civil wedding licence, enabling you to hold your wedding ceremony in the Playfair Hall, Fellows' Library or the Deacon Suite. Religious ceremonies can be held in any of our exclusive rooms, all offering a unique and amazing experience.

We can cater fully for your wedding breakfast by creating a meal entirely suited to your tastes and lay on an unforgettable evening celebration. Ceilidh, disco or drinks - you choose!

Your overnight guests can revel in the luxury of our sumptuous hotel in which every last detail has been thoughtfully taken care of. Ten Hill Place Hotel is situated in Hill Square, right next to our wedding venues.

After seeing Surgeons Quarter, we just knew it was the place where we wanted to get married.

“The moment you see our venue, you'll know it's the one for you.”

We are a fully functioning College with buildings dating back to the early 19th century. As such, we limit the number of weddings we hold per year to preserve our history, to allow us to continue to provide the highest standards of surgical education, and to give our complete attention to your special day. We can therefore only accommodate weddings on a Saturday & Sunday in any months out-with August.

The Playfair Building

Our flagship building, completed in 1823, is the work of renowned Scottish architect William Henry Playfair

The Playfair Hall

This is our most popular room for marriage ceremonies and wedding breakfasts. The duck egg blue room features a glass cupola ceiling and large windows which flood the room with natural light

The Prince Philip Building

The latest addition to our portfolio of venues was formerly the European School of Languages. The Building is named after the first Patron of The Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh, Prince Philip.

The Deacon Suite

This light and airy space looks out over the College gardens, making a beautiful space for a ceremony. The room has retained many of its original features including ornate pillars and a cupola ceiling. With its sprung wooden dance floor and private bar, it is the ideal venue for your evening reception.

Your Wedding Co-ordinator

Our Wedding Co-ordinator is on hand to make your preparations stress-free and ensure your day runs smoothly, leaving you to enjoy the experience. Offering extensive knowledge and experience, a consultation appointment with them will help to identify your personal requirements.

To arrange a tour of our venues or a consultation appointment with a Wedding Co-ordinator, please contact our Events Team.

Thank you so much for all your help in planning our big day and ensuring everything ran smoothly on the day. Everyone I spoke to loved the venue and had a great day. I think the combination of the Playfair Hall and the Prince Philip Building worked really well. We had an amazing day and I really do appreciate all the work you all put in,

I'd definitely recommend Surgeons Quarter as a wedding venue.

Bekki & Andrew

Thank you very much indeed for all your help, it was a truly wonderful day and our guests have all said they had a great time. They and we loved the venue and the service was great.

Tirion & Christopher

We would both like to say a huge thank you for all your support and patience with the lead up to our big day - it was lovely and all of the staff were so friendly and helpful.

Accommodation

Caring for people is fundamental to what we've been doing since 1505, when the Royal College of Surgeons was first founded. Over the years, we've been pushing the boundaries of surgical care and medical excellence for the benefit of everyone. That passion for precision and innovation is reflected in every highly polished corner of every room of our hotel.

Ten Hill Place Hotel provides the perfect stay. Located in a historic part of the city mere moments from the centre of town, we offer an experience like no other. A stone's throw from Surgeons Quarter's events venues and a ten minute walk from Waverley Station and the Royal Mile, we frequently welcome events guests as well as those looking to get to know Edinburgh.

In 2018, Ten Hill Place underwent a multi-million pound refurbishment and expansion to offer even more to our guests and to become Edinburgh's largest independent four star hotel. This involved bridging a gap between two buildings and almost doubling the number of bedrooms, as well as a complete redesign of the ground floor restaurant and bar space. The Playfair Building was built on the former site of the Edinburgh School of Riding, and to honour this a subtle equestrian theme is present throughout the hotel. Ten Hill Place holds numerous awards, from the Gold Award in Green Tourism, recognising our sustainability efforts, to regional and national Scottish Hotel Awards. Our chefs are particularly well decorated. They are not only an asset to Ten Hill Place but also to Surgeons Quarter as they are responsible for catering for all events on campus.

When you stay with us, every little thing is taken care of to ensure your stay is as relaxing as it is enjoyable. All of our 129 bedrooms come with a choice of soft or firm mattress, hypo-allergenic duvets and pillows, complimentary WiFi and an appetising hospitality tray. Our award winning restaurant offers breakfasts, lunches and dinners, and our staff are always available to help add the finishing touches to your stay.

We look forward to welcoming you to our hotel!
